

POLITICAS DE CANCELACION

The following cancellation policies apply to Day Camp 2021.

All payments made will be fully refundable with a cancellation written notice requested on or before March 31st, 2021.

Cancellation notice should be sent via email to texas@lallanada.com

Cancellations requested between April 1st., 2021 and May 31st., 2021 will be:

- 60% refunded of the total amount paid
- 20% kept as a credit
- 20% kept as cancellation fee

No refunds will be issued on cancellations requested on or after June 1st, 2021.

All refunds will be done during the next 120 days after the cancellation notice

Processing fee of $10 is nonrefundable.

- No full or partial refunds will be issued for campers that do not attend camp without a proper written cancellation notice, arrive late, depart camp before the end of the session, or are expelled due to behavioral issues.
- If a family needs to move their registration to a different camp session in 2021, a transfer of the camp will be allowed on a space availability basis.
- In regard to situations beyond our control, such as but not limited to pandemics, natural disasters, etc: IF Camp La Llanada's DayCamp 2021 can NOT go forward due to a government mandate or our own decision, we reserve the right to maintain or modify our current cancellation policy accordingly with previous notification to our registered families.
- Camp La Llanada reserves the right to change the start and/or end dates of the Summer DayCamp 2021 sessions in accordance with the indications of the local authorities in regard to the development of any situation beyond our control.