Cancellation Policies:

The following cancellation policies apply to Day Camp registrations for Summer 2027:

- All payments made will be fully refundable with a cancellation written notice requested on or before February 28, 2027. Cancellation notice should be sent via email to texas@lallanada.com
- Cancellations requested between March 1st., and May 15th., 2027 will be:

- 60% refunded of the total amount paid.
- 20% kept as a credit.
- 20% kept as cancellation fee.

- No refunds will be issued on cancellations requested on or after May 16, 2027.
- All refunds will be done during the next 30 days after the cancellation notice.
- Processing fee of $20 is nonrefundable.
- Any refund will incur a 2% fee per credit card transaction.

Additionally,
• No full or partial refunds will be issued for campers that do not attend camp without a proper written cancellation notice, arrive late, depart camp before the end of the session, or are expelled due to behavioral issues.
• If a family needs to move their registration to a different camp week in 2027, a transfer of the camp will be allowed on a space availability basis.

In regards to situations beyond our control, such as but not limited to pandemics, natural disasters, etc:

- If La Llanada Texas Summer 2027 can NOT go forward due to a government mandate or our own decision, we reserve the right to maintain or modify our current cancellation policy accordingly with previous notification to our registered families.
- La Llanada Texas reserves the right to change the start and/or end dates of the Summer 2027 sessions in accordance with the indications of the local authorities in regards to the development of any situation beyond our control.

Other discounts do not apply for Black Friday and Lanzamiento.